SUPER BRANY BEINS

-Copy-

The second little pig built a very fine house out of the bundle of sticks, and he lived there very happily. Then along came the big bad wolf.

-The Three Little Pigs

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| All the letters are the same style                           |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

Сору——

The elves sang as they stitched, sitting cross-legged on the bench. Their trousers were ragged, their shirts were threadbare and their poor feet looked frozen as they had neither socks nor shoes.

-The Elves and the Shoemaker

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| □ All the letters are the same style                         |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

-Copy-

There was a ghastly silence as the wife looked at her poor husband. Hanging from the end of his nose was a great string of sausages. The fisherman remembered what the fish had said.

-The Three Wishes

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| All the letters are the same style                           |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

-Copy-

He ran and ran, and the old woman and the old man, the dog and the cat, the cow and the horse, the pig and the rooster all ran after him. They couldn't catch the gingerbread boy.

- The Gingerbread Boy

Checklist All the letters are sitting on the line All the small letters are the same size All the words and letters are spaced out evenly All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright The writing is joined up All the letters are the same style Someone else can read my writing

-Copy-

The next morning they all rose early and Hansel and Gretel followed their father deep into the forest. He lit them a fire and told them he was going to gather wood and would be back soon.

-Hansel and Gretel

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| □ All the letters are the same style                         |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

-Copy-

The queen told the maids to take all the bedclothes and the mattress off the bed. The she placed one single pea right on the middle of the bedstead.

-The Princess and the Pea

Copy-

Dick was delighted, and he soon settled into the household. He worked hard, and everyone liked him, except the cook. She gave him all the really horrible jobs in the kitchen.

-Dick Whittington and his cat

Checklist All the letters are sitting on the line All the small letters are the same size All the words and letters are spaced out evenly All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright The writing is joined up All the letters are the same style Someone else can read my writing

Copy_

The day that Tortoise challenged hare to a race, all the animals laughed so hard that their tummies ached. But Tortoise was fed-up with Hare whizzing round him all the time, teasing how slow he was.

-The Hare and the Tortoise

-Copy_

Imagine what it would be like to live in a town overrun by rats. Rats in the streets, the shops, the gardens! Rats in the town hall, the hospital and police station! Rats in your kitchen, you bath, your bed!

-The Pied Piper of Hamelin

Name

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| All the letters are the same style                           |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

Сору–

Goldilocks found three beds: a big one, a middle-sized one and a little one. The big bed was too hard. The middle-sized one was too soft. But the little one was just right and she was soon fast asleep.

-Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Name

Checklist All the letters are sitting on the line All the small letters are the same size All the words and letters are spaced out evenly All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright The writing is joined up All the letters are the same style Someone else can read my writing

Copy_

The witch took Rapunzel and locked her into a tall tower so no one would see how beautiful she was. The witch threw away the key so if anyone wanted to visit they had to call out, "Rapunzel, Rapunzel!"

-Rapunzel

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| All the letters are the same style                           |
| Someone else can read my writing                             |

-Copy-

The prince climbed the tower, and there he found the princess, looking as lovely as ever. He bent over and kissed her, and immediately the spell was broken.

-Sleeping Beauty

| -Checklist                                                   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                              |
| All the letters are sitting on the line                      |
| All the small letters are the same size                      |
| All the words and letters are spaced out evenly              |
| All the letters are slanted in the same direction or upright |
| The writing is joined up                                     |
| All the letters are the same style                           |
|                                                              |